

Keep for pre-Plenum

One possible outline for Dialectics of Organization and Philosophy

Parts

I On Spontaneous forms of Organization vs. Vanguard Parties

* Begin with our age

problem from Marx's day to ours.

Here include:

whole ?
of PMM on org.

- MX on organization, esp. IWA and relation to Paris Commune
- Engels and 2nd International → Erfurt
- Lenin on What is to be Done? → State and Revolution → last years, especially Trade Union debate
- Soviets as spontaneous forms of organization (Kronstadt?) NO? [& Rosa Luxemburg]
- Council Communism-- Pannekoek
- Spanish Revolution and Hungarian Revolution
this NB

?? Again, brings us to our age but can't solve here

II Hegel and Marx -- on dialectics of philosophy and organization

- Hegel's Phenomenology, esp. Absolute Knowledge, esp. last paragraph on ? of Organization and Erinnerung
- Marx's "Critique of the Hegelian Dialectic" & vs. Lukacs' Young Hegel ~~esp~~ on end of Phenomenology
- Relation of Hegel/Marx-- Critique of the Gotha Program as ground but not sufficient itself.

III Hegel and Lenin

- ? of forms of organization is not answer
- What is to be Done? / State and Revolution
- Lenin's Philosophic Notebooks-- not as in 1953 or 1973, but 1987.
- ? of "Idea of Cognition" and "Absolute Idea" in Lenin's Philosophic Notebooks -- as in letters
- Hegel's own difference ( Science of Logic / Smaller Logic)
- On Attitudes to Objectivity
in Hegel, in Lenin, in our age

IV Dialectics of Organization and Philosophy in Post-World War II World

- Miners' general strike/Cameroonian-- Third World revolutions vs. CLR James
- 1953 letters on Absolute Idea -- concentration on organization and on 3 final syllogisms

? ground & roof?

Dual movement is not alone, but Self-Thinking Idea= MHism

- MHism's concept of organization (Constitution)
- Introduction/Overview (of trilogy of revolution??)

This is on ourselves...