Dear Olga, Bessie -

Marcuse has consented to write the introduction!

Altho he does not accept my interpretation of the Absolute Idea, thinks
I'm a "romanticist"

The classic part on Hegel is so solid - - and the memory of Rosa Luxemburg whom he heard 2 days before she was murdered - that he said he ^{is} would. With that I cannot see how we can possibly miss getting a publisher - he himself will keep trying when in April the director of his

pub. firm returns.

Am exhausted & must return to my lecture on "Where Is Russia going" - wish I were going it to our own people but no doubt in a month it will be the ³ grand joy - and then to have and come to complete first draft of book which was more I feel everyone is waiting for, incl. jessimish like Marcuse who can see no way out but evidently my book is for posterity though I assured him is for our generation who will reconstruct society.

Love -
Rae
