

KM :Critique of the Hegelian Dialectic in Mep inasmuch

p.305: "But as, as Hegel comprehends the negation of the negation--in accordance with the positive relation which is immanent in it, as the self-truly positive, in accordance with the negative rel. which is TRANSCENDED in it, as the only true act, an act of SELF MANIFESTATION OF ALL BEING, to the extent he has discovered only the abstract, logical and speculative expression for the MOVEMENT OF HISTORY."

p.308 : "What is regarded as the essence of alienation, which is posed and to be transcended, is not the fact of alienation, ~~which appears~~ is not the fact that human essence materializes itself in an inhuman manner in opp. to itself, but the fact that it materializes itself from, and in opp., to abstract thinking."

"Hence, despite its thoroughly negative & critical character, & despite the criticism actually contained in it, which often far surpasses the later developments, there is already in the PHEN, hidden in embryo, the latent potentiality & secret of uncritical positivism & equally uncritical idealism of the later Hegelian works--philosophic disintegration & resurrection of extant Empiricism."

p.309:"However, to the extent that it holds fast the alienation of Man--even if Man appears only in the form of Spirit--to that extent all elements of criticism lie hidden in its & are often already prepared & worked out in a manner extending far beyond the Hegelian standpoint. The sections on 'Unhappy Consciousness', the Honorable Consciousness', the fight of the Noble and downtrodden consciousness etc.,etc., contain the critical elements--altho still in an alienated form--in whole spheres like Religion, the State, Civic Life, etc."

Hegel's PHEN, & of its final result--the dialectic of negativity as the moving & creating principle--lies in this, that Hegel comprehends the self prod. of man as a PROCESS, regards objectivification as CONTRA-position, as externalization & as the transcendence of this externalisation; & that he, therefore, grasps the essence of labor & conceives objective man, true, actual man as the result of his own labor.

p.310 "We will now present in a detailed fashion the 1-sidedness & the limitation of Hegel in the ~~extreme~~ concluding ch. of the PHEN, in AK, ACH WHICH CONTAINS (GUTH) THE SUMMATION & THE QUINNESCENCE of the PHEN., & contains the REL. OF THE PHEN. to the speculative dialectic & the view of Hegel regarding their mutual & MANY SIDED REL.

p.311: "Rather, the actual alienation, which APPEARS as real, is....nothing but the APPEARANCE of the alienation of actual human essence, of self-consciousness. The science which comprehends this is, therefore, called PHEN."

p.313, When actual corporeal Man.....Humanism distinguishes itself both from Idealism & Materialism, & is, at the same time the truth. [uniting both.]

p.315: "NEITHER NATURE, taken objectively, nor Nature, taken subjectively, is immediately adequate to human essence."

p.316: "Knowing is its sole act."

p.316: "On the other hand, in the words of Hegel, there is also here contained the other Moment, namely, that it has likewise transcended & withdrawn into self this externalisation & objectivity. Hence that in its otherness it is at home in...."

"ALL THE ILLUSIONS OF ABSTRACT, SPECULATIVE THINKING ARE CONCENTRATED IN THIS JUDGMENT."

p.317: "Thus reason is at home in unreason as un-reason. ...thus nothing more need be said of Hegel's adaptation to religion, the state, etc. FOR THIS LIE IS THE LIE OF HIS PRINCIPLE."

"...try to grasp the positive moments of the Hegelian dialectic....
a) Transcendence as objective moment the concept of private property. ONLY BY THE TRANSCENDENCE OF THIS MEDIATION IS IT NEVERTHELESS A NECESSARY PRESUPPOSITION, does there arise the humanism, beginning from itself."

"Secondly, because the conception of formal transcendence of alienation becomes confirmation of alienation.
This movement of half-production or self-objectification, as self-externalization & alienation is, for Hegel, the absolute therefore its self-purpose, resting in itself, and its essence, is the final expression of human living. Yet, because it is an expression of an alienation of human life, it is regarded as a divine process...."

"Thirdly, this process must have a bearer, a subject, but the subject emerges ONLY AS RESULT..."

Q21 "The positive contribution which Hegel has made in his speculative Logic ...!"
