

IDEOLOGY & ORG. IN COMMUNIST CHINA by Franz Schurmann, 1966

Very last sentence of Preface:

vi "The writing of this book has been, like the Ch Rev., a process climaxed by an act."

Preface, xliv - "PREVENTING BUREAUCRATIZATION"

Now "The Ch have constructed a powerful & effective org., but one has IN SIGHT DETERRENTS AGAINST BUR."

INTROD.

p.12 "After I had completed this book, I realized that I had omitted an important area of org: the army." Says only in mid-1950's did it become clear that Ch. were creating a new trinity of state, party & army ...but constitution mentioned army at once.

p.23 "Theory is pure ideology thought is practical ideology!" (In view of Marx's theory that in Marxian theory ideology is false consciousness does the same used by Marx to express the capitalistic theory, this may be a good explanation. PD)

"When this book was in proof, Marshall Lin Piao air force in Sep. 1965 gave a speech which is one of the most important pronouncements documents to have emerged from Comst Ch. in recent years." (Compared to Mao Tse-tung's speech in 1945 On the Party at the 7th Party congress)

"Nevertheless, he has not yet reached the top, like Stalin to profound a Weltanschauung."

China's Power Structure

by Franz Schurmann

Where ideology & orgain C-ist China does not even have a part on the army here that Stalinist-Maoist apologist begins with Pgsm "China is today ruled by a trinity of organized power: party, govt, & army."

NO CONGRESS SINCE MAY 1958

"None can become an inv. force juxtaposed against the others."
10 plenary mtgs. bet. May 1958 & Sept. 1962; none until Sept. 66.

"If we, analysts know only the barest outlines of party, govt., org., they know still less about the army."

In recent years pol.depts. were created to "link" bet. party, govt. & army: "There were reports of army officers moving into these new positions." Supposedly that started only recently (1964) but he says nothing of it in his bk pub'd. 1966 Not only that this whitewasher says Mao Tse-tung having always been worried that bur. & mindinstitutionalization might create factional conflicts. It may be that Mao Tse-tung feels that the army is less subject to such conflicts."

"Peking has been making intensive efforts in recent years to build up a new unity within the army. It may now feel confident that this unity is so secure that it has allowed the army to take the leadership in the current campaign against "anti-party & antisocialist" elements within the party itself."

Mao Shao-chi's program of "wave-like development during Great Leap Forward measured havoc with the financial system"

L O R D Y!! Mac Tse-tung has ALWAYS (OHHOHO!) been fearful of concentrated bur. power.
The present purge may be said to conform to his general approach to politics.

"It is not even out of the ques. that, as a result of the purge, Ch. may move from a rigid approach to foreign policy to a more flexible approach, based on less visionary ideology."
