WP: "That cotton fibre was a rod of empire such as Caesar never wielded. It fattened into obedience pulpit and rostrum, court, market-place & college & lashed NY & Chi to its chair of state."

WP ON JB: "Harper's Ferry is the Lexington of today... Suppose he did fail... here are 2 kinds of defeat. Whether in chains or in laurels, Liberty knows nothing but victories. Soldiers call Bunker Hill a defeat; but Liberty dapes from it, though Warren lay dead on the field."

"Virginia did not tremble at an old gray-headed man at Harper's Ferry; they trembled at a JB n every man's own conscience."

"In the present state of affairs, WP' speech is of greater importance than a battle bulletin." (Aug. 1862)
