Dear Raya:

I'm in the last stages of preparing the book for production and have just two or three queries to put to you before doing so.

1. Pages ii and iii: Your instructions were to put a period after "Absolute negativity." on page ii. This means that page iii starts with "pervades" which makes no sense. Did you actually mean to put a period after "Absolute negativity"?
2. Were any of the chapters in the book published elsewhere? If so, I'll need all of the publication data including its copyright notice.
- ✓ 3. I think that a fairly good subtitle might be "From Hegel to Sartre, and From Marx to Mao" -- What think you?
4. Do you wish to include a dedication in the Book?

I await your usually prompt reply.

Warmly,

Rich
