

14442

SOUTH END PRESS

P.O. BOX 68 ASTOR STATION BOSTON, MASS. 02123

(617)266-0629

FEB 16 1979

Dear Raya,

Feb 13, 1979

I see from a recent News & Letters newspaper that you are focussing on Women's Liberation in your latest material. We were wondering if you'd be interested in contributing to an upcoming political controversies series Women and Revolution. The series will be a discussion/debate among Marxist Feminists, Socialist Feminists and Radical Feminists about the importance of sexism as a revolutionary issue. The format will be centered around a discussion of a lead piece by Heidi Hartmann titled "The Unhappy Marriage of Marxism and Feminism." Contributing articles will agree or disagree, discussing the points raised in the article and taking off from there.

I have enclosed the information needed about the process and people being asked to contribute, financial arrangements etc. and schedule. Let me know if you are interested and we'll proceed on the schedule enclosed.

Lydia Sargent
Lydia Sargent

*Thanks for notes but there is not a note of rev + this is my main purpose. Naturally the concept of a counter-revolution is not I like I propose a uniqueness of ideas that they have created the main tenor of the rev. I want to have that history →
I have my little bit in the context of marriage, the rev. will
H.A.'s
Rather than take that from the
I am happy to discuss I would like to
I may not see you. The point doesn't bring out the same point MS - the show*