Dear Kevin:

Raya is very anxious to get a copy of an article by Ryazanov which was published in The Bulletin of the Socialist Academy (No. 6, 1923, pp. 351-376) -- she wants it in the original Russian, and ~~MI~~ would like it as soon as possible.

Here is the Russian reference for it:

Would you please check whether it is available in N.Y., and if so, xerox it and send it to her at oncc? If it is not available, please let Mike know and we will try to have someone else hunt it down -- but if N.Y. doesn't have it, who would, no?

Thanks much. Excuse the rush.

Best,

Olga

(It may be found in the collection by the Marx-Engels-Lenin Institute, since the "original name" (Socialist Academy) was definitely changed after Lenin's death, and, moreover, the Academy of Sciences would likewise be a source, either rerecording the whole or quotations therefrom.)
