

Sept. 5, 1985

WLDOR sent (via Dick A.) with handwritten inscription:

To

Dear, dear Harry, the 1st British

Marxist-Humanist that was so inseparably a revolutionary Marx's Marxist-internationalist that Karl Marx himself would feel England had not been "exile" but the humus for world

Marxism

Love

Raya

16437

RD's file

Inscriptions by RD inside cover of WLDOR

To Ana Maria Portugal, -- Oct. 1, 1985 friend, comrade, woman liberationist and battler with us in Ideas of freedom and philosophic dimensions who will find herself in this work WLDOR as Latin American freedom fighters were reaching for the future --

Raya Dunayevskaya

To Margarita Segura, woman liberationist who can prove that as a global phenomenon and ageless -- from Flora Tristan in that great year 1844 called for a new internation of men and women which Marx praised and realised, to today's freedom struggles. Raya Dunayevskaya

To Richard Huett who helped in writing and publishing helped this book be as had always been his principle in the battle of Ideas from 1950s till today -- and that is only one aspect of his multidimensionality

Raya Dunayevskaya