Israel/Palestine

Resources for peace, justice, and human rights

Connexions, an information clearinghouse founded to promote justice, democracy, and social and environmental alternatives, has compiled this guide to selected resources on Israel/Palestine. These resources were selected to help those who believe that a solution to the conflict is possible only on the basis of justice, equality, and an end to Israel's occupation of the Palestinian territories. Many more articles, books, videos, documents, websites and groups can be found on the Connexions Web site – www.connexions.org – which also features a library of articles and links concerned with alternatives and social justice issues generally. To find more resources, use the SUBJECT INDEX on Connexions.org or SEARCH under terms such as “Israel” and “Palestine.”
