end of the '80s and early '90s when the mass movement was so powerful that Pope John had to introduce some reforms in relation to labor and Semitic and attitude to labor conditions. What the new Pope had better do instead of relying just on his own reputation is to remember the 10,000 women who marched in Rome in 1976. He can be sure of confrontations with mass movements like that in the future.
