

HANDWRITTEN NOTE TO SHEILA ROWBOTHAM FROM RD 3/27/80, together with April 80
N&L chapter 2 pages

Dear Sheila:

Thought you'd be interested in Ch. 2 of Rosa Luxemburg which first approaches the male chauvinism in the GSD. Thanks for the material I've been getting from you, esp. Beyond the Fragments. We seem to be working on quite different areas, but then that is what WL is. What I regret is that so few are working on theory -- In any case, the damned book -- I've completed 4 chs thou the 2nd is 1stst pub'd -- takes so much time and it won't be finished till end of year that I cannot find time to comment on other aspects. Do have great relations with Iranian WL (so very isolated now as to practically function on in underground.) How are you?

Yours, Raya

P.S. I meant to ask you ever since Women, Resistance and Revolution, has your use of the word, Particular, any Hegelian connection with the three categories of the Doctrine of the Notion -- Universal, Particular, Individual?
