The Canadian Mental Health Association did a six month survey to see who could buy a condominium apartment in this Homewood Avenue project. CMHC sponsored the study and is financing the building which is being built by Meridian. CMHC won't release the report as they are in the midst of negotiating with Meridian on some of its recommendations. Informed sources have it that only 20% of the building can be occupied by people living in the Don District under the present financing arrangement. Hopefully, this will be changed by the negotiations now underway between C.M.H.C. and Meridian.

SADIE RETIRES

by Ted Plantos

On Monday, May 17, there will be a reception to honour Miss Sadie Jordan on her retirement from the Toronto Public Libraries.

It will be held at the Parliament St. Library where Sadie Jordan has been the Head Librarian since 1957.

Sadie Jordan is known to Ward Seven not only for her competence and ability as a librarian, but as a person whose involvement in the community through the library exemplified a quality which is rare, even among the more radical enthusiasts of community involvement; that quality is empathy, and has to do with the ability to relate with people as individuals.

Over the years her talent for motivating interests, and involvement in literature and the other arts, inside our community, revealed a determination to bring the library to people, and demonstrate through their participation, as audience or performers, that authors like Shakespeare, Dickens, Browning and Joyce were, and still are, quite real.

Of course this enthusiasm reflected itself in every one that worked with her, either on the library staff, or as a volunteer.

The challenges that present themselves to a library in this age of television, and paper back pornography, are many.

It was inevitable then that the library should broaden its area of participation in the community, and that it lead the way in bringing live authors, or live cultural events to the people.

Under Sadie Jordan's direction the Parliament St. Library has been second to none in bringing the library arts to life. From play reading groups to creative writers' workshops, and reading by E.J. Pratt, Irving Layton, Milton Acorn, Joe Rosenblatt, and Gwendolyn Makewan; there has always been an enthusiastic welcome from our community. Parliament St. Library is the only library in Toronto that holds regular poetry and folk evenings.

These and art festivals, ethnic cultural evenings, jazz, rock and roll, and programs on Great Authors have all met with the enthusiasm that she and her staff put into their organization.

Poets, truck drivers, poor people, well-to-do people, children, old people, teachers, sidewalk philosophers, parents and all different kinds of people from all different walks of life were met with the same enthusiasm. Her distinctions in people are genuine, she has the habit of seeing people and situations as they are, not always as they appear. She is quick to see quality in people, and equally as

by Norm Craven

R.C.O.'s monthly meeting at Broadview "Y" on April 26th, drew 85 active members plus one film crew. The minutes of the last meeting were read and disposed of in record time.

Roger Saunders, Marie MacDonald and others of the delegation who met with the Public Works Committee at City Hall on April 26th reported their brief on parking was favourably received. They were told parking problems will have to be cleared on a street by street basis.

It was stated City Hall is softening its attitude to R.C.O. and recognizes the fact that R.C.O. speaks for area residents. One sour note, certainly lamentable and definitely inexcusable, marred the occasion. Alderman June Marks was presented with a toy machine gun. Even if warranted, surely a bunch of roses would have been more effective.

Two new committees were formed. One being a Parks and Recreation Committee to define and press for the community's needs and interests particularly regarding the Dunlop property. The other committee, Planning and Development to look into and be a watchdog with particular reference to Consumers Gas site at Eastern Ave.

Connie Leslie (R.C.O. Chairman) was given authority to research the feasibility of hiring professional fund raisers. It is very evident the Federal Government is stalling with their iffy-grant. On Friday April 23rd, a spokesman for the Dept. of Urban Affairs via Bell's infernal machine said "The delay in funding should not be construed as a refusal."

Just how long will they take? Don Keating has been working without salary for the past three months. While most of you good people have been hitting the sack, he has been pushing a hack, to put groceries on his family's table. He has got to be "the most" dedicated peoples organizer in all Canada. Certainly he puts community interests ahead of his own.

The 50-50 Draw lucky ticket was removed from the drum by Betty Knight (P.C. candidate Riverdale last Fed. election). The winner, Delores Farace of Scarboro, has won before. A few hints of fix were heard and the meeting dissolved in laughter.

The promise was then made by the movie crew to show the processed film in screaming black and white, at a later date.

Flash! April 28th

The United Church of Canada, aware of R.C.O.'s troubled finances made an additional grant of $5,000 to R.C.O. to clear up back debts.

PLANNING ACT CHANGE

By V. MacCallum

Lack of Parkland in the suburbs? It's hard to imagine, but true. Several small municipalities are petitioning the Minister of Municipal Affairs for amendments to the Planning Act. Dedication of Parkland by the developer is a common thing, in a new subdivision. The Planning Act requires up to 5% of the land within a subdivision for public purposes, other than highways. Now that the highrise has moved into the suburbs, increased densities from apartment units, on smaller lots, makes land dedication from development out of proportion with the increase in population. The problem is compounded when re-zonings of a subdivision takes place. When that happens, the 5% land levy does not apply. A more realistic approach is needed to cover not only the subdivision dilemma but urban problems as well. The Municipalities are not financially able to acquire parkland and recreation facilities to meet the needs, in areas of greatly increased population. The amendment proposed by the Municipalities simply asks that "by-laws passed by council which increases the permitted density for residential development should carry an agreement with the developer for either a levy of land or monies, the amount based on the number of people in the development, not on the land area".

Play In Church

A first for Ward Seven and for Don Vale is the presentation of a full-length play in the new Don Vale Community Centre at 80 Winchester Street.

The play is "A Sleep of Prisoners" by Christopher Fry and deals with four prisoners in a temporary Prisoner of War camp during the Second World War. The temporary quarters used to hold the prisoners is a church and aptly enough it is the former St. Enoch's church proper that is being used to stage the play.

The play is being produced and directed by Stephen Chambers, a resident of Don Vale, and for the past two months, a volunteer group of local people have been working almost nightly to change the church into a play-house and rehearse the production.

The play will run at the Don Vale Community Playhouse from May 17th to 22nd, nightly at 8:30. Admission is $2.00, with a special rate of $1.00 to students, senior citizens and groups of six or more. Tickets can be bought at the door on the nights of the performance or ordered in advance by phoning the Community Centre at 921-6710.

As a special treat, a small party will be held after each performance, at which time cast, crew and audience will mingle and talk over refreshments.

Pro Aid To Citizen Groups ?

Poor people's groups from the Don District may soon have lawyers speaking on their behalf at City Hall. They may also have architects drawing up alternate plans for them in their presentations to City Hall.

This idea was put forward by Marvin Novak, a community worker working part-time in the Don District, at a recent meeting of the Metro Community Housing Committee. "It's ridiculous," said Mr. Novak. "Middle income groups and developers are represented by lawyers at City Hall - so why not poor people's groups?"

There was some opposition to the idea, however, as some members of the committee felt that poor people's groups might lose their credibility and control if represented at City Hall by a lawyer.

After some discussion, the idea was approved and a sub-committee of the Metro Community Housing Committee will set up a "pool" of resource people to meet the needs of citizen groups in the Don District.

The Don District Housing Action Committee plans a special meeting at which time they will discuss the proposal and decide what resource people they need and in what capacity they would be most useful.

The Friday Nite Bowlers brought their season to a successful close last Friday with the conclusion of the playoffs. In the A Series the Road Runners overcame a 100 point lead and beat a very determined Mod Squad by a very narrow margin. The Alley Kats never stopped trying and with a few breaks could have made it really close. Congratulations to Frank Hider's Road Runners, and to Jack Watson's Mod Squad and Hazel Watson's Alley Kats, a real nice effort. In the B Series it was wide open with all seven teams in a real dog fight, when the dust had settled, Penny McGraw's Charlie Browns emerged the winners, barely beating out Norm Conway's Big Bangs. Clair Conway's 318 for the Browns was the big blow struck for the winners. Serge Tucci won the men's High Average with a steady 230. Jack Watson won the men's High Single, John Buffan High Single w/Handicap. Gord Gooderham and Ron Horniblow the High Triple Flat and High Triple w/Handicap. Mother Mary Murdock the Oak St. Phantom won the Ladies' High Average with a sparkling 188 beating out a pair of Mod Squaders Sue Binsted and Kathy Lacicero by a narrow margin. Del McGuire High Single, Carol Benn High Single w/Handicap. Sue Binsted and June Horniblow the High Triple and High Triple w/Handicap respectively. It was the most successful year ever for the Fri-Niters and the exec. would like to thank all team captains for their support and co-operation. To Jim Evans and his pin boys a terrific job. To all bowlers have a nice summer and see you all next Sept. 17th when we're off and running again.

HOSTS SKIP OWN PARTY

by Vern Burnett

"Public participation in development decisions must be encouraged to create active interest in the community's future."

So said the City of Toronto Planning Board in its Central Waterfront report of November 1970.

The citizens who responded by presenting briefs and attending the April 27th T.P.B. meeting on the Central Waterfront, are taking an active interest in their city's development.

There is doubt in the minds of many, that the viewpoint of the 1970 Planning Board has carried over to the 1971 Board.

City Council has voted to put five aldermen on the T.P.B. which originally had been set up to foster public input into the planning process. Alderman Fred Beavis was chosen to represent the Mayor. Aldermen, Archer, Clifford, Grys and Wardle, as chairmen of Council's standing committees, are this year, members of the Planning Board.

Though there are fifteen members sitting on this board, Dr. Kucherepa, Chairman, Mr. D. Cowper and Alderman Wardle were the only three able to attend the April 27th meeting. This meeting was arranged by the T.P.B. March 2nd.

The absence of twelve members of the board, was a seeming discourtesy to the public, to those who had planned the meeting and to the officials who participated, namely; Mr. Jack Jones, Toronto Harbour Commission... Mr. Dennis Barker, City of Toronto Chief Planner... his deputy planner, Mr. R. Spaxman... Mr. Wade and Mr. McLean, Metro Region Conservation Authority... Mr. Wronski, Commissioner of Metro Planning... Mr. Thompson, Commissioner of Metro Parks... Mr. Dougherty, City, Public Works... and, Mr. Sampson TTC Dept. of Planning.

The meeting, capably chaired by Dr. Kucherepa, started at 8.15 P.M. Following the Chairman's remarks, Mr. Spaxman gave a slide presentation on the Central Waterfront. He assured those present that the planning staff values the involvement of citizens in planning. The majority of the Planning Board apparently does not.

The briefs given by citizens should help to convince the Planning Board (if they read them) that interested citizens do have a stake in the future of their community.

An interesting summary by Dr. Kucherepa, Chairman of the Board, regarding the absence of its members was, that the briefs presented are to be studied by the Planning staff and put in precis form to be brought back to the board.

quick to see their problems.

Her friendship was never patronizing. Sadie Jordan is a socialist in the deepest sense of the word.

She could be very straight forward, and often reveal insights into the character and thinking of those who invited her honest opinion through their bad manners or psychological delusions - in other words she could be very outspoken when it became necessary.

Sadie Jordan contributed a depth to this community which was her. And if this does not adequately speak for the spirit of that depth I am sure that the May 17 reception will.

A POLITICAL PLATFORM TO STAND ON?

SHOPPING MADE EASY

by Pat Moses

The computer has been used to give some practical help to the household shopper. This should be good news to those dedicated to stretching dollars, who find the mathematics of changing pounds and ounces to dollars and cents a frustrating and time consuming exercise. A Consumer report brought attention to the fact, that one Food Store Chain has instituted a new pricing system to do that work for you. Seven News interviewed Mr. Skacha, Manager of Food City at 449 Carlaw Avenue and found that this is the first food chain in Toronto, and may be the first, in Canada, to offer this service. All items are valued by ounces and listed under the price and size of the package. Figured by the ounce, it works out to decimals of a cent. The pricing is all done by computer and can easily be changed as prices fluctuate. Asked if we could hope for this service in other areas, he said if people ask for it, there is no reason why not. Other food store chains have complained of the outlay, but Mr. Skacha felt it was not an expensive service.

Once you grasp the idea, comparative shopping is no problem. It was interesting to check accepted notions on the values of small, medium and large sizes of products. In some instances the medium size could be a better buy. Shopping became so simple, shopping time was cut in half. With this kind of merchandising, fancy shaped boxes with less in them, will disappear. The result may be uniform sizes that will satisfy the needs of the consumer and the merchants.

How do you get the same kind of service from your local food store chain? Keep asking for it!

Toronto and its similar problems of intense population on smaller lots, might solve some of its park and recreational problems by pressing for a similar change in the Planning Act. Any money paid in lieu would go to the Parks and Recreation Department and be used to acquire space where it's most needed. The Toronto Parks Department have been hampered until recently by a ruling that would not allow them to bid on a piece of property unless it came on the market. It is now possible for the Department to seek out and negotiate, privately, for industrial or other property. Buying power is governed by the finances available, so more parks and recreation, in the City may mean that now is the time to press for a completely new approach to land dedication. What dedication of land there is, in Toronto merely covers road allowances and set-backs. What Toronto really needs is Land Dedication, for People.

Continue Fight For Park

by Norman G. Browne

Somewhere, deep within the confines of Toronto City Hall, Meridian and city officials are desperately trying to work out a compromise solution to meet the demands of citizen groups over the West St. Jamestown project.

Rumor has it that a one acre park will be placed at the top of the block, fronting on Howard Street and the commercial and professional project slated for that area will be moved elsewhere. The three high-rise towers will be built south of that. And, in order to keep the green space credit and thus build to maximum density, Meridian would lease the park land to the city.

The St. Jamestown Community Action Project, which is an amalgamation of the various groups opposing the West St. Jamestown project, aren't satisfied with this solution. At their last meeting they voted overwhelmingly to continue the fight to have the whole Bleeker-Sherbourne block made into a park.

To keep attention focused on the park issue, the St. Jamestown group plan to have a "clean up the Park" day on Saturday, May 8th, followed by a "Mother's Day Picnic" on the following Sunday. The mothers and wives of the various members of the executive of Meridian have been invited to attend.

Although the fight will continue for parkland, the St. Jamestown group recognise and will continue to pressure for an official plan change which will lower the density allowed in the city core from the present high of 4.25 to a more reasonable one of 2.5.

EDITOR OR CENSOR??

Dear Sirs;

In the latest edition of your newspaper(?) you made a statement in the community events column which was completely on the border of fantasy. Now I would like to list for you the truth of this and if this paper runs true to form this little article will get lost as some seem to do so often. I do not run in the same political pack as you and your cronies do but what I ask you to print is truth so we'll see if you do it or not. By the way this article has been read by the tenants in two high rises buildings of Regent Park just as proof it was written and sent to your office.

The Don District Health Resources Committee is NOT setting up a Health Clinic in Regent Park. Mr. Richard Boundy the corresponding-secretary of The Regent Park Community Improvement Association is the CHAIRMAN of a committee of this Association who are setting up the Health Clinic.

Mr. Boundy has met with Dr. Ursula Anderson of The Hospital for Sick Children, Dr. Richard Wilson of St. Michael's Hospital, also Dr. Kopplin of same Hospital and G.W. Moss Deputy Medical Officer at the Department of Health, Mrs. Ethel Teitlebaum at Hon. Donald S. MacDonald office, and this to name a few. All this is on record at the R.P.C.I.A. Office.

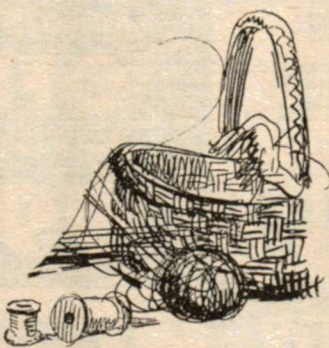

The point is, sir, that this man is a tenant who has worked his heart out and you turn around and hand all the credit to a committee who have never put foot inside Regent Park SERVICE UNIT OR HEALTH CLINIC. Both these exist through the hard work of the tenants of Regent Park. Mind you these people belong to a group which do not share your radical behaviour pattern but this doesn't mean you must take the credit their due from them.

If you're any kind of paper you'll correct this silly error you made. The Committee is from the R.P.C.I.A. and it's Chairman is Mr. Richard Boundy working directly with the hospitals heads of department.

I'll be watching your next edition for a sliver of truth.

Mr. D. Maine
15 Belshaw Place
306.

SEVEN NEWS regrets any embarrassment caused to Mr. Boundy by the erroneous information printed in our last issue. We understand Mr. Boundy is writing an article for our next issue on the Health Clinic. We would be pleased to hear your comments on it. - The editor.

Fairgrounds on Zoo Site?

Dear Sir;

To-day, I received a copy of the Ward 7 Community Newspaper, and as usual, I read it through completely and I appreciate what some of the people involved are trying to do. Their job is a tough one, I know, I've made the rounds myself.

While reading the story regarding Riverdale Zoo Site, I couldn't help but think what a wonderful thing it would be, if we could turn it into an amusement park, (Like Crystal Beach, down in the Niagara Falls, Fort Erie Welland Area) that would be in operation from May 24th through Sept. 2nd. We should ask the City of Toronto to turn the site over to citizens on a 99 year lease, and we could then make arrangements for the people who set up fair grounds to come in and develop the site and the profits could be shared on a 50-50 type basis. As it is, the tax payers are supporting that large piece of land on a No Profit basis. I understand that the operators of Crystal Beach will soon be leaving and that amusement park will no longer be in operation.

We have the Canadian National Exhibition, but they charge an Arm and a Leg just to get into the place, and that Entrance fee gets larger every year. I think that it is high time that the City of Toronto started to do something for its citizens instead of just taking from them.

I wonder when they (City of Toronto) will start fixing up the roads around this area. I've been living here in Don Vale since 1966 and the city haven't done anything to Wellesley Street, East of Parliament St., except patch the odd Pot Hole. We are the last to have Snow Removal. Other streets have the sand trucks and snow plows out while the snow is still falling. Wellesley Street, East of Parliament St., had only one lane for most of the winter. We were not receiving services for our tax dollars.

The City of Toronto had the gall to leave a notice in my door, to clean my sidewalk immediately. I had to have an Ambulance several times for a very sick member of my family. The Ambulance crew had to drive up over the sidewalk in order to safely remove the patient. I'm waiting until this next winter comes along and if we don't get snow removal after each snow fall, there is going to be someone answering a lot of questions. I feel that as a tax payer, I'm entitled to the same consideration as those on Nob Hill, and I'm damn well going to receive it.

Enclosed, please find my cheque for another one year subscription and a donation to your fine Newspaper.

George E. Christian.
